

YOUR GUIDE TO THIS WEEKEND'S ENTERTAINMENT

A charming animated film and a realistic dinosaur documentary, as well as a a hot salsa fiesta and a mind-bending magic show by local magicians, beckon this weekend.

DINOSAURS — GIANTS OF PATAGONIA

48

Experience the wonder of evolution with this fascinating Marc Fafarddirected IMAX 2D documentary that charts the birth, evolution and downfall of the dinosaurs.

This 40-minute docu is narrated by actor Donald Sutherland and contains never-before-seen computer generated footage of creatures such as the colossal herbivore the Argentinosaur and its arch nemesis, the fearsome, meat-eating Giganotosaur. It kicks off the Science Centre's Dinosaur trilogy that will continue in 2009 and 2011 with two sequels.

Omni-Theatre, Singapore Science Centre, now till Nov 28 with daily showtimes at 1pm, 3pm, 5pm and 8pm. Tickets at $10 for adults and $5 for children from the Singapore Science Centre.

SPANISH HARLEM CONCERT

Dance to sultry salsa beats with the award-winning Spanish Harlem Orchestra, which makes its local debut at Downtown East this weekend as part of the Singapore International Salsa Festival that ends Sunday. Founded in 2000, the Grammy-nominated 13-member group - led by pianist Oscar Hernandez — will also launch its third album, United We Swing, at the festival.

Salsa lovers can also expect performances at the same arena by dancers from Singapore, India, Indonesia, and Thailand as well as New York DJ Nelson Torres and Indonesian Latin band Primavera All Stars.

D'Tent, Downtown East, Saturday at 8.30pm. Doors open from 8pm. Tickets at $40 (including one drink) at the door or from www.tdc.sg.

TRIPLE ACTZ

Suspend your disbelief with Triple Actz, a 75-minute theatre show featuring a hat-trick of local magicians: "Magic Babe" Ning, touted as Singapore's only professional female magician, award-winning comic-cum-magician Shawn Chua and escape artist "Iron" Will, who will be making his escape from 50 feet of rope, handcuffs, mail bags and locked boxes.

Alliance Francaise, Sunday at 7.30pm. Tickets at $25 from www.magicboutique.sg.

THE TRIPLETS OF BELLEVILLE

Be charmed by this criticallyacclaimed animated film from France, about a rescue mission staged by Madame Souza to save her kidnapped grandson, a Tour de France racer. Teaming up with an elderly singing trio from Belleville, the motley crew embark on a very eccentric adventure.

Nominated for an Oscar in 2003, it won the New York Film Critics Circle Awards for Best Animated Film the same year.

Screening Room, The Arts House, I Old Parliament Lane. Tickets cost $8 at The Arts House Box Office. Log on to www.theartshouse.com.sg for this weekend's screening schedule.
